

Find information about clubs on D71

Go to <http://d71.org>

This site is not dynamically linked to the main Toastmaster site - D71 members have entered all information here. There is no migration of information from the US site to this site for data protection reasons

Main navigation run across the page under the TM logo (top right of page)

Log In ... Far right of main Navigation ... if you can do this ... fine ... if not do this

- Click on Log in
 - Under the Log in button are three links. Select the appropriate one. Either You forgot your password, or you are not registered or you forgot your username - whichever - follow the instructions in screen
 - Then you can log in
 - You must be logged in to access this information
-

On the side navigation ... that is the columns that run down the page - left and right – Log in using your username and password

- Go to left column
 - Look for Site Navigation
 - It may have preselected your Division
 - Select your Division
 - That will list the areas in your Division
 - Select the Area
 - That will list the clubs in your area
 - Select the club to view
-

Once you have the club selected
Go to the main navigation (across the top) and click on Club Data

The drop down menu shows the options and all club data is here

While we are about it – click on the main top navigation bar and select Profile – this is all about you – read through and check YOUR entry is correct